Terms and Conditions of Sale

1. Orders. These Terms and Conditions of Sale apply to every order ("Order") placed by a customer ("Customer") of Alif Semiconductor Singapore Pte. Ltd. ("Alif") for the purchase of integrated circuit devices (including SOCs), boards and evaluation kits ("Products"). Each Order shall state (i) the Products and quantity required, (ii) the delivery address, (iii) the carrier to be used and (iv) if known, the purchase price based on a quotation received from Alif. All Orders are subject to acceptance by Alif. Alif may accept all or part of an Order in its discretion and will send an Order confirmation to the Customer confirming the Products and quantities, purchase price, any taxes or duties payable and an estimated shipment date. Alif reserves the right in its sole discretion to allocate inventories and current production when it determines such allocation is necessary.

All quotations issued by Alif and all Orders submitted by Customer with respect to the Products shall be governed by and subject to these Terms and Conditions. Orders are solely for purpose of specifying the Products and quantities being ordered, delivery address, and carrier. All terms and conditions contained on any Order form or correspondence originated by Customer are null and void and without effect notwithstanding acceptance of the Order by Alif. Alif's failure to object to provisions contained in any communication from Customer shall not be deemed a waiver of the provisions of these Terms and Conditions. Acceptance of an Order will create an agreement between Alif and Customer for the purchase and sale of the Products listed in the Order at the price set forth in the Order on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

Previously quoted prices are subject to change without notice. Orders not subject to a current Alif quotation will be billed at the prices in effect on the date Customer's Order is accepted by Alif. Neither party is responsible for clerical errors. All sales are final and Customer may not cancel an Order or return any Product except as specifically provided herein.

2. Payment. All payments for Products shall be in U.S. dollars. If Customer has been approved in advance for open credit terms, Alif shall invoice Customer on shipment of the Products and Customer shall make payment to Alif within 30 days after the date of invoice. If open account credit terms have not been approved in advance, payment in advance or a letter of credit will be required prior to shipment. A late charge equal to the lesser of (i) 1.5 percent per month or (ii) the maximum amount permitted by law will be assessed on all past due amounts. Alif reserves the right to change the foregoing payment terms or require payment in advance in its sole discretion, should Alif determine that the financial condition or previous payment record of Customer so warrant. Customer shall be responsible for payment of all federal state, local and foreign value-added, excise, sales, use, property and similar taxes, export and import licenses, custom fees and duties, and all other mandatory payments to government agencies of whatever kind, levied in respect to the Products sold to Customer by Alif, except for taxes levied on Alif's net income. If Alif is required to pay additional taxes, fees or other charges, Customer will reimburse Alif for such amount. Alif is not liable for reporting, collecting or paying any tax, fee or other charges imposed upon the Customer subsequent to the original invoice.

3. Shipment and Title. Alif reserves the right in its sole discretion to allocate inventories and current production when it determines such allocation is necessary and to ship an order in installments. Partial shipments may be invoiced as made. Scheduled shipping dates are approximate only and Alif may ship up to two weeks in advance of customer's requested delivery date (the "CRD"), if the CRD is confirmed by Alif as approved. In the absence of specific shipping instructions, Alif will ship by the method it deems most advantageous. Transportation charges will be freight collect, or if prepaid by Alif, will be subsequently invoiced to Customer. Customer is responsible for obtaining insurance against damage to the Products being shipped. All sales are Ex Works (Incoterms 2020) Alif's point of shipment. All risk of ownership and title passes to Customer at the time of shipment. Alif's liability for delivery ceases upon the presentation of the Products to the carrier at the shipping point in good condition and the Customer will thereafter be responsible for and bears the entire risk of loss or damage to the Products. Customer is responsible for filing any required claims for loss or damages against the carrier. Customer grants Alif a purchase money security interest (or its equivalent under applicable laws) in the Products to secure Customer's payment of the purchase price for the Products. Customer authorizes Alif to file financing statements or other instruments with the appropriate authorities to perfect or protect Alif's security interest.

4. Contingencies. Alif shall not be responsible for any liability due to any delay in the fulfillment of any Order due to unforeseen circumstances or to causes beyond its control, including, without limitation, acts of God, strikes, lock-outs, war, riots, pandemic, epidemic, fire, accident, freight embargoes, subcontractor caused delays, or the compliance with any law, regulation or order, whether valid or invalid, and whether or not similar to those listed in this Section 4. Fulfillment of the Order shall be deemed suspended so as long as any such circumstances or causes delay its execution. Whenever such circumstances or cause have been remedied, Customer shall accept delivery under the Order.

5. Cancellation and Rescheduling. Customer may cancel an order only with Alif's prior written consent. A shipping date may be rescheduled only with Alif's prior written consent. A shipment date may be rescheduled only once.

6. Warranty. Alif warrants that the Products (i) will operate substantially in conformity with Alif's published specifications in effect at the time of shipment; and (ii) will be in compliance with RoHS (2002/95/EC) (Directive of the European parliament and of Council on the restriction of use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment) (the "Directive") and that all raw materials, dye materials, solvent, consumable materials and packing materials, which are used in the manufacturing processes of the Products comply with the Directive and all banned/prohibited substance specified in the Directive will not be contained in the Products and its manufacturing processes in each case, for a period of one year from the date of shipment (the "Warranty Period"). Customer will defend, at Customer's expense, any claim against Alif arising out of such prohibited use and Customer will indemnify Alif for costs and damages (including reasonable attorneys' fees) finally awarded in any lawsuit based on such claim. Customer will have no obligation to defend or indemnify Alif unless Alif promptly notifies Customer in writing as soon as reasonably practicable after Alif first becomes aware of such claim and gives Customer sole control of such claim and all requested assistance for resolving such claim or defending such lawsuit. Customer will not be liable for the settlement of such claim made without Customer's prior written consent unless Customer breaches its duty to defend hereunder. Customer agrees that its obligations under this Section will not be effected by any alleged negligence or misconduct by Alif relative to the design or manufacture of the Products.
